

RELIEVING CONSTIPATION

When the bowels become constipated or clogged by an accumulation of feces, the remainder thus retained slowly decomposes, producing gases and liquids, which are absorbed by the intestines and taken up by the blood. Unless the bowels are thoroughly cleansed and a regular habit established, the poison thus taken into the system may manifest itself in boils, blotches, pimples and sores. Inflammation of the bowels, liver and kidneys may also result, and the absorption of the bile and uric acid by the blood becomes the source of rheumatism and neuralgic affections.

In the train of constipation follows a multitude of diseases. Thus it often happens that a course of the great VIN HEPATICA treatment removes not only the constipated condition but other painful ailments which result therefrom.

L. F. Sweeney, of Route No. 1, West Nashville, Tenn., the well-known Nashville traveling salesman, writes: "There have been times when I thought I would simply have to give up my work on the road. No one knows how much I suffered from poor and irregular meals and broken rest. I was continually constipated, and my whole digestive system was upset. But the tide has turned for me now, and I am on the road to complete recovery. And I owe it to Vin Hepatica—nothing else. I now go to bed and sleep as soundly as a baby all night, and wake up feeling refreshed and go about my work with my old-time energy."

KERENSKY SAYS ALLIES MUST HELP RUSSIA

Still Considers Nation Is at War With Germany Despite Brest-Litovsk Peace Treaty.

(Copyright, 1918, by the New York World.)

London.—David Soskice, Kerensky's private secretary during his premiership, has made to the World correspondent the following statement repeating the exact language used to him by Kerensky yesterday:

"The overwhelming majority of the Russian nation represented by the national assembly, which was elected on the broadest franchise and practically by all the Russian educated classes and organized political parties, have rejected and will never recognize the Brest-Litovsk treaty, not only because it was concluded against the consent of the people's representatives, but also because it broke Russia into pieces and deprived each part of its most necessary means of existence."

Still at War With Teutons.
"Russia will never submit to the Brest-Litovsk peace. She continues to consider herself in a state of war against the central empires. Russia has never ceased to consider herself to be in union with the allied democracies by the side of which, for more than three years, she fought heroically against German imperialism and for the great ideal of the freedom and brotherhood of peoples."

"She was lacerated by a perfidious enemy who placed on her neck the most cruel tyranny of the bolshevik usurpers. Russia now is fighting against that tyranny, whose days are counted. She works for the organization of a real national government, expressing the will of a united people, in order to resume the struggle side by side with the allies against Germany. But she is weak, lacking arms, food and supplies, and therefore she needs immediate and effective help from the allied democracies. The blow delivered by Germany and the bolshevik usurpers was but one episode of the great tragedy of the world war."

"Assistance is needed not only in the interest of Russian democracy, but also of the allied free nations, because if the allies do not come to her assistance Germany will respond to the appeal of the Russian upper classes, who are ruined and who expect from Germany the restoration of the monarchy supported by Prussian bayonets."

Wishes of the Democracy.
"Such is the desire which was expressed to Kerensky by the executive committee of the national assembly and by the democratic parties before he left Russia. The Russian democracy does not wish and would not consent to interference in her internal politics. Those matters she can settle for herself. She wishes only that the great world President Wilson should become a tangible act, and that America and England, by lending allied help to Russia, should prove their alliance with her."

"Russian democracy still exists. The moral effect of sending allied economic help would be immense in giving Russia clear proof that she is not abandoned by the allies. The material effect would be to give her the means of continuing the struggle, as the news of coming allied help would at once give a strong impetus to the concentration of the dispersed forces of Russia and their organization against the common enemy, Germany, and would then make possible the liberation of Russian territory from the German invader."

SAVES COMRADE'S LIFE BY HEROIC SACRIFICE

(International News Service.)
Paris, July 3.—A fine example of sacrifice has been shown by Eilbert Warfield, son of Dr. W. E. Warfield, of Chambersburg, Pa. Warfield, who is only 21 years old, was accidentally wounded June 21. While convalescent he learned that a wounded United States marine needed blood to save his life and immediately offered to submit to the transfusion himself. Luckily, Warfield is recovering from the double shock.

WAR CONFERENCES FOR TENNESSEE CALLED

Maj. Rutledge Smith has sent out notices to all war workers having specific positions such as food and fuel administrators, state and county, those heading the labor department, the Y. M. C. A., Red Cross, all board members and county chairmen of defense councils be present and participate in the conference.

SHE WAS DYING OF PELLAGRA

Texas Woman Was on Death-bed and Doctor Said There Was No Hope.

TOOK BAUGHN TREATMENT

Soon Got Better—No Symptoms Have Returned.

Mrs. H. U. McCrary, Bardswell, Tex., writes: "In the spring of 1915 I was taken with Pellagra. My doctor said there was no hope. By then I could not leave my bed any. I heard of Baughn's Pellagra treatment and sent for it. After two or three days I began to get better and continued to get better until I got well. I am sure I would have been in my grave today if I had not got it, and no symptoms have returned."

"The symptoms—hands red like sunburn, skin peeling off, sore mouth, the lips, throat and tongue a flaming red with much mucus and choking; indigestion and nausea; either diarrhoea or constipation. If you have Pellagra you can be cured by Baughn's Pellagra treatment. Get big free book on Pellagra. Address American Compounding Co., Box 2025, Jasper, Ala., remembering money is refunded in any case where the treatment fails to cure."

IN THE KAISER'S PATH

Across "Mittel Europa" stretches a barrier of Slavs and kindred nationalities which promises a rude awakening for Germany's dreams of reaching the east, either across the Dardanelles or through the Caspian sea, when the nations that have been enslaved by the Teutons have been put on their feet. This map shows how 51,000,000 oppressed peoples stand in the Kaiser's path—1,000,000 Finns, 2,000,000 Letts, or Livonians, 2,000,000 Lithuanians, 20,000,000 Poles, 5,500,000 Rumanians, or Ukrainians, 8,500,000 Czechs and Slovaks in Bohemia, 10,000,000 Rumanians, 11,000,000 Jugo-Slavs, and 1,000,000 Italians.

AMERICAN FLIERS KEEP AIR FREE OF HUN PLANES

Pursuit Unit Gives Germans Good Chase—French Send Official Congratulations.

(Associated Press.)

With the American Army in France, Tuesday, July 2.—American aviators are receiving congratulations for the efficient protection given the infantry and artillery during the operations Monday night and today west of Chateau-Thierry.

The Americans kept the air, especially on the American side of the line, virtually free of enemy airplanes. The French commander in this district has sent official congratulations.

One American pursuit unit encountered a big enemy group late Monday and chased the Germans off, after getting in some good shots. One American machine failed to return. Today a damaged German machine was found inside the American lines.

North of Chateau-Thierry this morning nine American machines and nine German airplanes had a thrilling combat for half an hour. At least three of the German planes were driven down while two of the Americans have not returned tonight.

AIRPLANE TO BRING VICTORY TO ALLIES

Will Sow Destruction, Death and Terror on Enemy's Soil.

(By Gen. J. M. G. Mallette.)

(Copyright, 1918, by New York World.)
Paris.—The lull on the French front persists, at any rate so far as it concerns the German offensive against the British. The British, French and American troops, however, are not inactive. Not only have they stopped numerous German raids aimed at sounding the allied line, but they have executed brilliant successful detailed operations which show their keenness. The Americans at Chateau-Thierry, the British in Flanders and the French in the interesting advance they have just made west of Soissons between Ambley and Cutry show themselves prepared to answer the German attacks.

Ludendorff Must Attack

There is no doubt that Ludendorff is preparing a new offensive. As I said in my last article, he is condemned to the attack through the economic and political situation in Germany. But he must have been embarrassed by the recent Austrian defeat in Italy, by the seriousness of the alimentary crisis in Austria-Hungary, by the bolshevik troubles agitating Russia and by the ever increasing difficulties within the German empire itself. He cannot hope for a sensational surprise like that of March 21 and that of May 27. The allied high command is on its guard. It must not be forgotten that Ludendorff still holds the better strategical position and has the greater facilities of maneuver for attacking masses.

Big battles are to be expected in the summer months. Where will they take place? Perhaps on every front. But one must look attentively to certain rivers exercising attraction for the Germans—the Meuse, the Oise and the Meuse.

BIRMINGHAM'S RED CROSS BULLS NETTED $80,000

This Amount Realized in Sale of Sixty Animals Donated by Breeders.

Birmingham, July 2.—Birmingham's Red Cross bull sale netted more than $80,000 for the Red Cross, this amount being paid for the sixty bulls which had been donated to the cause by shorthorn breeders of America.

"Le President," formerly Lavender's Lord, the property of President Wilson, the prize bull of the sale, brought $10,000 and was purchased by a group of six Alabamians. A notable feature of the sale was the fact that every bull sold was purchased by an Alabamian and will remain in this state. The sale money goes to the Red Cross chapter of the county in which the purchasers live.

One of the largest crowds ever seen in the Capitol park pavilion attended the sale. This morning the sixty pure-bred animals were paraded through the streets, each covered by a Red Cross streamer and each led by a Red Cross nurse in costume. Auctioneers of national fame contributed their services for the day. The sale was originated and managed by Frank I. Derby, of Sumter county, Alabama.

HERE IS TOLD A REAL HUMAN INTEREST STORY

New York, July 3.—Mrs. J. Harrison Thompson, of Chicago, and Mrs. Jane Riley, of New York, sat side by side in the waiting room of the Pennsylvania terminal here. Each had a small black bag. In Mrs. Thompson's bag was $25,000 in government bonds, $8,500 in cash and all kinds of diamond jewelry. It inventoried $71,000 altogether.

In Mrs. Riley's bag was a photograph of her son Denny in a soldier's uniform, a purse containing a cent and the remnants of a lunch. When the Pennsylvania was called Mrs. Thompson picked up a black bag and started for the gate. About the same time Mrs. Riley, having posted after her trip to Camp Union, picked up a black bag and started for Seventh avenue. When Mrs. Thompson reached the gate she opened the bag to take out her tickets.

"My diamonds!" she shrieked. Station employees quickly mobilized. A little amateur sleuthing led them to Mrs. Riley, walking wearily toward Seventh avenue. She was indignant when asked to open the bag she carried, but complied with the request.

"Oh, where is my Denny's picture?" she cried. Explanations followed. "What are diamonds compared with Denny's picture?" demanded Mrs. Riley, as she handed a street car conductor five of the eight pennies in her shabby purse.

ENLIST FOR ROOF DEFENSE--

Carey
FIBRE COATING AND REPAIR PRODUCTS

One roof repaired in time will outlast two roofs that are never defended.
Carey Fibre Coating brushed over the surface, enters into the pores and fibres of an old composition roof, gives it new body, new weather-resisting strength, and a new glossy, air-tight surface that defends the roof through many more hard winter campaigns.
Neasha Pitch is a plastic compound spread on with a trowel. It fills crevices around gutters, valleys, skylights, chimneys, etc. Can be applied in hot or cold weather, to wet or dry surfaces. Without heating, will stick to any kind of material. Handy, inexpensive, effective.
Carbon Paint is for boilers, smoke-stacks, and other hot surfaces. Does the work.
Carey Black Asphalt Paint is a pure preservative for metal surfaces, tin roofs, metal tanks, etc.
Universal Coating and Magnesia Coating are inexpensive preserving paints for general purposes.
